ionate good nature" says Harper's Weekly. The Republican platform should be particularly agreeable to that paper.

Since we had the panic many of us can't take our regular vacation from business. Nothing, however, prevents us from taking our vacation from church-going.

The INTELLIGENCER, like Senator Stone and unlike the Kansas City Post, believes that debates between contesting candidates for a Democratic nomination do more harm than good, and can point to at least one concrete example to substantiate its belief.

The Republicans will have no success in trying to use Grover Cleveland's death for political purposes. Cleveland was the leading Democrat of his day just as Bryan is now. Bryan recognizes Cleveland's greatness and praises him in the Commoner.

Do the "Allies" really feel disappointed about Taft's nomination? Not exactly. If some dyed-in-the-wool, standpat, trust-fed, reactionary tool of the corporations had been nominated, the Republicans would have nothing with which to appeal to the common people.

But with Taft, the disciple of Theodore Roosevelt, as the candidate, the editorial writers can point to the intention of the party to continue its grand work of reform. And so, yelling "Hurrah for the Roosevelt policies," Messrs. Cannon, Dalzell, Jenkins et al will ask for re-election. Taft will attempt to catch the Roosevelt vote, Sherman will collect the campaign fund, while Cannon and his committeemen expect to throttle all reform legislation.

CANNY MR. COWHERD.
William S. Cowherd certainly did the proper thing when he declared his intention of making his race for the Democratic gov-ernatorial nomination unassisted.
The mere fact that single handed he is opposing Ball and Clark combined will gain him many votes. He can, moreover, do more for himself than any assistant could and the doubtful localities are so few that he can visit all of them before the primary.

As aforesaid, Mr. Clark can land no votes which Mr. Ball could not get unassisted and the Damon and Pythias act is a boomerang. People now get the impression that Ball needs help while Cowherd does not.

But any way you figure it, except by taking the dope of the esteemed St. Louis Mirror, Cowherd has the nomination cinched.

TAFT AND THE NEGRO.
Secretary Taft and Candidate Taft are different persons. Secretary Taft thoroughly approved of the discharge of the negro battalion at Brownsville. For this he acquired the unfriendliness of many negroes.

When the Secretary became the Candidate he realized that he must do something to placate to the colored vote. So he tried to have a negro eat at a table with him in Jim Crow territory, knowing that such an act was a breach of state law.

Then at the Chicago convention the candidate's brother with his wife, daughter and a negro alternate appeared in a box at a theatre.

Now the candidate is talking about the erection of a monument at Washington for the dead negro soldiers.

Isn't it disgusting?

Laws Social.
The Endeavor Society of the Christian church will give a lawn social at the residence of Clarence Vinton, on Tuesday evening, July 7th. Music and refreshments. Everybody is invited.

Try a quart of the finest eating olives in the market for 30 cents. Put up in mason jars. At Jos. L. Long, Cash Grocer.

CORDER ITEMS.

Fred Schnable spent Sunday in Kansas City.

Mrs. James Starke is on the sick list this week.

C. L. Wilson returned from Chicago Friday.

Miss Nellie Martin is visiting relatives in Centerville.

B. E. Heffer was in Kansas City Tuesday on business.

Miss Beulah Corder returned to her home in Kansas City, Saturday.

Miss Stella Lewis is visiting the family of T. M. Lake of Higgins-ville.

L. N. Barley shipped an extra fine car load of fat hogs to the St. Louis, Tuesday.

Miss Susie Barley is spending the week as the guest of Miss Mae Andrews.

Miss Edna Corder is visiting her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Terrill, of Latour, Mo.

The Corder Home Telephone company installed a switch board in Dover last week.

Mrs. C. M. Lewis and baby son, Thomas William, spent Friday with Mrs. William Wilson.

Mrs. John Walters of Hodge and her daughter, Elizabeth, visited Mrs.
Wm. Wilson Wednesday.

Miss Mattie Hackley visited her sister in Kansas City Sunday and brought her little niece home for a short stay.

Miss Ella Maleeny of St. Louis, Mo. is here visiting her cousins, Miss Edna Carthra and Mrs. Mattie Steele.

Mrs. Minnie Knipmeyer and daughter of Higginsville visited Misses Mable and Bess Knipmeyer of this city, Friday.

Mrs. Walter Lunbeck and family returned from Colorado Wednesday, where they intended to locate, but did not like the West.

Hayes Wollenman, Leo Wollenman, Hugh Kidd, Louis Peerless, Harris Bray and Tiffany Doak went to Higginsville Friday night.

Henry Holcher shipped 130 head of beef cattle to New York City Friday.
These cattle averaged $97.00 apiece, weighing about 1,400 pounds.

Miss Ella Haas is enjoying her vacation in Chicago. J. C. Blincoe of Higginsville is taking her place in the branch store of Hoefer and Minersbach.

Miss Selly Lynchum of Bronough, Vernon County, Mo., accompanied Miss Leana Kidd home from Morrisville college where they attended school. Miss Lynchum came Thursday and left Tuesday evening for Sweet Springs where she will visit friends.

The contractor of the new school building, George F. Roggie, started to grade the grounds for the new site, Monday morning. The building, which is to be brick, is to cost near $13,000 and will soon be under headway. It is estimated that it will not be finished before the first of January next.

Hon. Seward A. Haseltine of Springfield, Mo., Democrat candidate for Congress of the 7th Congressional district of Missouri, delivered an address to a large audience here Thursday night. Mr. Haseltine is a very able speaker and doubtless made a great many votes for himself in this precinct.

The business men of this city held their meeting Monday night to decide on the question of having their annual picnic on the 29th of July. The question carried and the picnic is to be bigger and better than ever before. This annual affair is looked forward to by everybody over the county and always had a large attendance.

Died, at his home in Magnolia, Ill.
Thursday, June 25th, John Kidd, age 72 years. The deceased was born in Virginia and came to Missouri with his parents when he was quite young.
He was raised in this county and served in the Southern army under General Price. After the war he went to Illinois and has been living there since.

Married, at the Baptist church in Marshall, Mr. Charles Seefluth of Mt. Vernon, Ill. and Miss Bessie Knip-meyer of Corder, by Rev. T. P. Tar-tee, 12 o'clock noon on June 30. The happy couple left the night of the marriage for St. Louis, where they will spend their honeymoon. They will be at home to their friends after Sept 1st at Mt. Vernon, Ill.
